

IV International Conference of the History of the Dominican Order in America and the I International Meeting of OP Archivists in America

May 28th to 30th, 2025
Mendoza, Argentina

Call for Papers

In continuation of the previous conferences held in Mexico (2013), Bogota (2016), and Providence-USA (2019), the 4th International Conference on the History of the Order of Preachers in America seeks to deepen the study of Dominican history. This academic event provides a platform for researchers dedicated to exploring the Order of Preachers in the Americas, fostering exchange, reflection, and debate. Additionally, it aims to showcase the progress made in historical studies across various regions of the continent and from diverse theoretical perspectives.

Among the thematic axes to be addressed are the following:

Organizational structures and institutions.

Daily life in American convents.

Biographies, hagiographies, images of sanctity.

Participation in political processes.

Philosophy, theology, spirituality.

Devotional practices.

Artistic expressions: architecture, painting, music.

Dominicans Archives: history, organization, current conditions and projected plans .

Literary and print culture.

In conjunction with the IV International Congress on the History of the Order of Preachers in America, the I International Meeting of Archivists will also be held. The purpose of this gathering is to introduce the existing Order of Preachers archives across the American continent, present their current state of conservation and cataloging, and to facilitate the exchange of organizational experiences. The ultimate goal is to promote awareness of these valuable archival collections and encourage their accessibility to researchers.
